A very little baby

My aunty has a new baby. He was born last month. He is very tiny and very cute. I like him a lot. He does cry a lot though and that makes my ears hurt. He cries almost every night.

I want him to play with me, but he's too little for that. I think he likes me though. He looks at me and makes funny sounds.

Yesterday, my aunt gave him a bath. I helped her give him a bath. We filled a small tub with warm water. We mixed the soap into the water and very gently cleaned him. He did not like it at all and cried a lot. It made my ears hurt even more. I don't think we should bathe him again!
