The crow

We have a tree in our garden. It's a neem tree. In the branches of the neem tree, a crow built her nest. She laid some eggs in the nest. One day, the eggs hatched and the chicks came out.

The mother crow fed her babies and kept them safe. When they are older, she will teach them to fly.

One day, when her babies were still young, a hawk came to raid her nest. The mother crow cawed really loudly. Lots of other crows came to help her. Together, they chased the hawk away. Her babies were safe.
